MILONGA EVERY NIGHT

Tango is the most important cultural contribution that Buenos Aires has given to the world. This distinctive form of music and dance is seductive, captivating and, simply put, great entertainment – it should not be missed when you are visiting the city where tango was born and is done best.

Every night, you will be able to hit the dance floor in one of the several milongas found in the city, until your feet 'can't take it no more' !!!!

Entrance to the milongas are not included in the package rate, as some nights some people may not want to go out. Therefore each person pays for his/her milonga, which costs around 5 USD for the entrance (on average).

Its core is the Market of Antiques, which for the last 35 years has been making an appointment with visitors at Dorrego Square. The entire neighborhood gets ready and makes plans for Sundays, when the square gets dressed in market clothes, in tango, in colors and antiques, characters, passions, youth and nostalgia. The cafés, their tables and chairs, their colors and elegantly dressed waiters contribute with their color to our journey back in time.
